Keith Burgess

Keith is primarily a landscape painter. He has received numerous one-man gallery shows, commissions, awards, and is also a teacher and show juror. His formal art education began at Valdosta State University and continued at Georgia Southwestern State University where he earned a B.A. Degree. After college he began a long career as a graphic artist/illustrator for a major publishing corporation in Atlanta. Though he set aside painting during the early part of his corporate career, the urge to paint again lead him to pursue a fine art career on a serious level in the early 1990's. He then began studying with nationally renowned artists from the Art Students League, NYC. In 2003 he left the corporate world to pursue his passion for painting full time.

Marsha Hamby Savage

Marsha has 51 years of creating art with pastels, oils, acrylics, and gouache... and of course sketching with pencils and pens of all kinds. Her love of nature comes naturally because of the era in which she was raised. She is inspired by the landscape more than anything else and loves to paint plein air (on location) to see the real colors and atmosphere. Her work is a study which she says takes the pressure off. Don't call it a painting until it becomes one. She does play and experiment by painting still life, the occasional figure or people, flowers and some abstract work. She is always on a journey to learn more.
